

Cap-i-tan Ska!

PLAYER NAME: _____

LEVEL: _____ BATTLE CRY: _____

Backstory Once Bernie Katz was just an annoying wanna-be hipster casualty of that horrible "swing" fad from a few years back, until the day he discovered his step-father's original rudie two-tone suit in the attic, it's lapels emblazoned with the slogan "with great style comes great responsibility." Putting it on, the young trend-doid was reborn as the ultimate rude-boy Cap-I-Tan Ska: The Sworn Defender of Ska Music! Now he fights evil in his own original style and has even found time to be an anti-litter activist in his community, always encouraging youngsters to "pickitup pickitup!"

Pita Pan!

PLAYER NAME: _____

LEVEL: _____ BATTLE CRY: _____

Backstory: A complete junkfood junkie, Sonny Stevens was on a one-way express train to a permanent dirt-nap after years of indulgence of over-processed "meat" patties, deep-fried starches and no vegetables whatsoever. His doctor put him on a strict vegetarian diet, but was unable to curb his excessive appetites, especially for traditional middle-eastern lunch fare. One fateful day, one too many babaganoosh and grape leaves platters combined with the toxic chemical buildup in his body from a lifetime of fast food to explosively transform him into Pita Pan! The ever young avenger of bread products!
